DHI Announces Leadership Transition

The Digital Health & Care Innovation Centre (DHI) has announced a leadership transition, with Dr. Petra Wilson appointed as the new Chair, succeeding John Jeans CBE after eight years of dedicated service.

Petra brings extensive international experience to guide the board's strategic oversight and support DHI's next phase of growth. With this leadership transition, DHI enters a new chapter, building on a legacy of strong governance and innovation, and reaffirming our commitment to improving health and care outcomes by placing citizens at the heart of every solution.
