DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION

Public Sector Digital Transformation 2024

Holyrood Connect's annual flagship Digital Transformation event for the Scottish public sector is returning to Edinburgh for another year, featuring Moira Mackenzie Deputy Chief Executive at DHI. This conference will be a premier opportunity for delegates to engage with thought leaders and experts, and to learn about the latest digital developments.

Through a variety of session formats, including keynote addresses, panel discussions and interactive masterclasses, the event will provide real-life examples of digital transformation within the public sector for you to learn from.
